

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Gerold Heinrichs

born: 17.2.1963 in Moenchengladbach, Germany nationality: German personal status: married, three children education: 1982 Highschool (Gymnasium) university education: 1982-1985 study of Geology/Palaentology University of Wuerzburg, 1985-1988 study of Geology Technical University of Clausthal-Zellerfeld, German Diplom civil service: 1988-1989 GSF-National Research center for environment and health, Institute for Hydrology, Munich consultant: 1989-1996 BGU, Dr. Schott & Partner, hydrogeological consultants, Munich

thesis: 1991-1996 Institut of Geology, University of Wuerzburg scientist staff: 1997-1998 GSF-National Research center for environment and health, Institut of Hydrology, Munich 1998-2000 Hydroisotop - Isotope Laboratory, Schweitenkirchen, Bavaria
research manager: 2000 – 2006 Project Management Agency of the German Ministry of Education and Research, Bonn, International Bureau at DLR: senior officer for programmes with Israel and European Countries, Latin American Countries, India and Oceania director: since 2006 Head of Department for Asia, America and Oceania Coordinator of the EU-funded multilateral projects SEA-EU-NET (EU-Southeastasia) and KORANET (EU-South Korea)
Member of the Board of EU-funded project CoReach (EU-China)
quality management: since 2001 Project Management Agency of the German Ministry of Education and Research, Bonn, member of the “Total Quality Management”-team, certified external auditor and quality manager (DGQ / EOQ)