Travelling by train and tram

Coming from Cologne central station or Köln-Messe/Deutz take the train in the direction of Koblenz to Bonn-Oberkassel (Note: take the train via Troisdorf and Linz but not via Bonn). The train runs twice per hour and need approx. 30 minutes.

Coming from Cologne/Bonn-Airport: you can take the train in the direction of Koblenz to Bonn-Oberkassel (Note: take the train via Troisdorf and Linz, not the train via Bonn). This journey takes approx. 23 minutes. Alternatively, you can take tram number 13 (direction Troisdorf) until Troisdorf. Here take the train to Bonn-Oberkassel (travel time: approx. 40 minutes).

Coming from Siegburg/Bonn-ICE-Station: Take the train number 12 to Kerpen-Sindorf to Troisdorf. Take the train (to Koblenz) via Linz to Bonn-Oberkassel. The train runs twice per hour and need and the travel time is approx. twelve minutes.

Coming from Bonn central station the tram number 62 in the direction of Oberkassel-Süd/Römlinghoven goes to the tram stop Ramersdorf. Alternatively, take tram number 66 to Bad Honnef until tram stop Ramersdorf. Both trams run about every ten minutes and require an average of 21 to 24 minutes for this journey.

Walk towards Oberkassel (approx. five to ten minutes). The PT-DLR is the large building on the righthand side.

Footpath

Station Oberkassel:

Walk along Kalkuhlstraße to Königswinterer Straße, turn left there and follow Königswinterer Straße. The building is the second to last before the crossroads (Heinrich-Konen-Straße/ Dornheckenstraße) on the left-hand side.

Station Ramersdorf:

At the parking place you will pass to the junction Oberkasseler Straße/ Königswinterer Straße. Turn left into the Königswinterer Straße in direction Oberkassel. After about 200 metres you cross the Heinrich-Konen-Straße. Walk towards Oberkassel (approx. five to ten minutes). The PT-DLR is the large building on the right-hand side.

Travelling by car

Take the A 59 or B 42 to junction Bonn-Ost. Then take the A 562 to Bad Godesberg to exit Bonn-Oberkassel (approx. 300 metres). Turn left to Oberkassel.

At the roundabout (after about 800 metres) take the first exit to Oberkassel (Königswinterer Straße). The PT-DLR is the large building on the right-hand side (after about 500 metres).

There are a few parking places for visitors in front of the building.
